

European Research Council – Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions Researchers' Career Forum and Information Day

Date: 25 May 2017

Venue: Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Large Lecture Hall (Budapest Széchenyi István tér 9.)

9:00 Opening Address

Professor László Lovász, President, Hungarian Academy of Sciences

Professor József Pálinkás, President, National Research, Development and Innovation Office

9:20 Hungarian Results in 'Excellent Science'

Professor Éva Kondorosi, Vice President, European Research Council

Ms Nóra Jeney, Deputy Head of Department responsible for Marie Skłodowska Curie Actions, National Research, Development and Innovation Office

Q&A

10:15 Scientific Presentations (Testimonies) of ERC-MSCA Grant Holders I.

Ms Maria Lugaro, ERC CoG grant holder, MTA Research Centre for Astronomy and Earth Sciences

Mr Tamás Beke-Somfai, MSCA fellow, MTA Research Centre for Natural Sciences

Mr Ádám Dénes, ERC CoG grant holder, MTA Institute of Experimental Medicine

10:45 Coffee Break

Basic information on call deadlines, grant types, etc. to be displayed on screens

11:15 Scientific Presentations (Testimonies) of ERC-MSCA Grant Holders II.

Mr Csaba Janáky, MSCA fellow and ERC StG grant holder, University of Szeged

Mr Károly Takács, ERC CoG grant holder, MTA Centre for Social Sciences

Mr Viktor Harangi, MSCA fellow, MTA Alfréd Rényi Institute of Mathematics

12:15 Opportunities for Researchers' Career Development (roundtable discussion)

Moderator: Professor Éva Kondorosi, ERC Vice President / Mr Gergely Böhm, ERC National Contact Point, Head of Department of International Relations, Secretariat of MTA

Speakers:

Professor László Kiss, Deputy Director General, MTA Research Centre for Astronomy and Earth Sciences

Professor Attila Mócsai, ERC StG grant holder, mentor, Semmelweis University

Mr Dániel Marx, ERC StG and CoG grant holder, MTA Institute for Computer Science and Control

Ms Vanda Mobácsi, ERC Projects Officer, Academic Cooperation and Research Support Office, Central European University

Mr Gyula Szigeti, Vice President for Research and Development, National Research, Development and Innovation Office

13:00 Lunch Break

Basic information on call deadlines, grant types, etc. to be displayed on screens

14:00-
16:00

Career Forum (Small Lecture Hall)

Research grant managers, research projects officers and NCP's provide information and personalized advice for researchers in a one-to-one dialogue form about ERC and MSCA grant schemes and calls as well as about grant schemes and calls offered by the Hungarian Academy of Sciences and the National Research, Development and Innovation Office